

LANDSCAPING CASE STUDY

The client:

This is a landscape design company specializing in residential backyard design-build projects.

Niche:

Design-Build Landscaping

The Solution:

We worked on revising the internal linking strategy on the site to push forward rankings for their main pages. We also added technical aspects, like advanced Schema Markup, to capture more real estate on the SERPs and attract high-quality traffic that will convert.

The Results:

Our efforts greatly impacted the organic traffic (year over year) and helped contribute to new and better keyword rankings.
